This is a student-edited web resource designed to provide a forum for scholarly discourse on the principles and foundations of education. It will function as a medium of exchange for students to share their work, receive feedback on their work, and present their work to the community.. Multiculturalism, Diversity, and Multicultural Education. The key issue is the creation of multiculturalism as a community where individuals are respected for their differences and for their contributions to the community. While diversity has become an international standard for many organizations, the benefits of diversity are recognized only in the context of multiculturalism. However, multiculturalism implies diverse cultures. The following is a summary of the advantages of multicultural education: 1. Assimilation of students to diverse cultural and racial groups. This site is aimed at the diversity of educational programs offered by the Universities of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The mission of the website is to promote dialogue and encourage the dissemination of knowledge on all aspects of diversity within higher education. 2. Increased intercultural competence. It is dedicated to make available to the general public the research findings and debates on multicultural education and the policies in Illinois, nationally and internationally.
